SYNOPSIS:

Who was Lucio Fulci, director of such horror classics as ZOMBI 2, CITY OF THE LIVING DEAD and THE BEYOND — an eccentric? A misogynist? A genius? Much speculation surrounded the life of this revered Italian director since his untimely death in 1996. Divided into three categories — Accomplices (Crew), Peers (Directors) and Victims (Actors) — the acquaintances Fulci engaged with throughout his long and diverse moviemaking career recall good, bad and sometimes ugly anecdotes by revealing the answer to one question: “What is your fondest memory of Lucio Fulci?” 7 years in the making, nearly 90 interviews and almost 4 hours of footage — a must for any fan of EuroHorror cinema, limited to only 2,500 copies!
